

Brambuk the National Park and Cultural Centre

Make Brambuk your first stop before exploring Grampians (Gariwerd) National Park. Discover famous hiking trails, beautiful waterfalls, spectacular mountain views and ancient Aboriginal rock art shelters.

Knowledgeable park staff can provide you with the latest walking, touring and camping information to experience the national park

The gift shop provides a unique range of local Aboriginal products, Australian-made souvenirs and park maps

Enjoy self-guided walks through native gardens and vibrant wetlands that link the Park Information Centre to the Brambuk Cultural Centre. Keep your eyes open for local wildlife like emus, kangaroos, wallabys and the abundant birdlife of the Gariwerd landscape.

Barengi Gadjin
LAND COUNCIL
ABORIGINAL CORPORATION RNTBC

Eastern Maar
Aboriginal Corporation

GUNDITJ MIRRORING
Traditional Owners
Aboriginal Corporation
RNTBC

Parks
VICTORIA

Managing Country
Together

Brambuk Cultural Centre

Since opening in 1990, Brambuk has provided an opportunity for visitors to learn what Gariwerd means to the Jadawadjali and Djab Wurrung peoples. The award-winning Brambuk Cultural Centre building is currently closed with upgrades continuing between 2022 and 2024.

Further Information

Brambuk is 2kms south of Halls Gap on Grampians Road.

Open 7 days
9am - 5pm
(except for Christmas day).

Phone 8427 2058
or visit parks.vic.gov.au

Parks Victoria respects the deep and continuing connection that the Jadawadjali and Djab Wurrung peoples have to the lands and waters of Gariwerd, and we recognise their ongoing role in caring for Country.