

THE FIRST SHOT COMMEMORATIONS – MEDIA IMAGERY

5 AUGUST 2014

Following is a selection of images associated with the First Shot Commemorations at Point Nepean National Park. These images are available for media application and use at no cost, on the condition that you credit the photographer / source as listed where possible. To order high or low res versions of these images please contact Sally Hutchinson at Parks Victoria via email: sally.hutchinson@parks.vic.gov.au

Alternately we can accommodate on-site media image and footage opportunities on request.

1. Gun Barrels at Fort Nepean Credit: John Gollings

2. Battery Observation Post – Fort Nepean Credit: John Gollings

3. Fort Pearce Fortifications Credit: John Gollings

4. Gun Barrels – Barrel on the right fired the first shot Credit: John Gollings

5. Gun Emplacement 6 – Entry Credit: John Gollings

6. Gun Emplacement 6 Credit: John Gollings

7. Tunnels – Fort Nepean Credit: John Gollings

8. Tunnels – Fort Nepean Credit: John Gollings

9. Engine House Credit: John Gollings

10. Point Nepean – view to Fort Nepean and the heads Credit: John Gollings

THE FIRST SHOT COMMEMORATIONS – MEDIA IMAGERY

5 AUGUST 2014

11. Gun Emplacement 6 – The site of the first shot of British Empire WWI c1914 Credit: Australian War Memorial

12. German freighter SS Pfalz Credit: Australian War Memorial

13. Gun Emplacement 5 housing a 6-inch Mark VII gun

14. Gunners preparing ammunition shells

15. Gun Emplacement 6 and magazine entrance

16. The First Shot gun crew Credit: Australian War Memorial

18. Fort Nepean – view to the Heads Credit: Australian War Memorial

19. Engine House Precinct c1933 Credit: Australian War Memorial

17. Eagles Nest gun emplacement Credit: Queenscliff Historical Society

20. Fort Nepean – view from the Jetty Credit: Australian War Memorial