

Point Nepean Walks
 Tracks wind through the Quarantine Station, forts, gun emplacements and Moonah woodland, with sweeping views of Bass Strait and Port Phillip at the Heads. 6.4km from Wilsons Folly Track at London Bridge to the tip of Point Nepean.

Mornington Peninsula Walk
 Experience the diversity of the southern peninsula from bay to bush, cape to point. The walk can be completed in sections or approximately 100km of continuous walking tracks linking:
 - Two Bays Walking Track
 - Coastal Walk
 - Point Nepean Walks
 - Bay Trail

Bay Trail
 Winds through foreshores and camping grounds of Port Phillip from Portsea to Dromana. 28km Portsea to Dromana.

Two Bays Walking Track
 Varies from steep gravel sections over Arthurs Seat to undulating tracks through Greens Bush. 26km from Dromana on Port Phillip via Bushrangers Bay to Cape Schanck.

The Coastal Walk
 Includes cliff top tracks and beach walking. 30km from Cape Schanck to Portsea Surf Beach (London Bridge).

- Freeway/Highway
- Major sealed road
- Minor sealed
- Local sealed road
- Unsealed road
- Walking track
- Park
- Reserve
- Marine National Park/ Marine Sanctuary
- Water body

- Key to Symbols
- Park Information
 - Surf fishing
 - Surf lifesaving (Seasonal)
 - Snorkelling
 - Hang gliding ramp
 - Toilets
 - Light house
 - Toilets-disabled access
 - Heritage site
 - Drinking water
 - Transporter
 - Showers
 - Wildlife viewing-birds
 - Short walks
 - Wildlife viewing-marine
 - Hiking
 - Wildlife viewing-kangaroos
 - Guided walk
 - Bird hide
 - Lookout
 - Kiosk
 - Picnic table
 - Restaurant
 - Barbecue
 - Accommodation
 - Beach activity
 - Surfing

